VISITED THE RAJAH. J. B. Glenn has received the following from his son-in-law, J. W. Madara, who sailed from New York March 3, on the hospital ship, Relief:

Singapore, April 7th, 1899. J. B. Glenn: We arrived here yesterday nording, and expect to leave today. This elly has about two hundred thousand peo-ple. Fully half are Chinese. It is a grand place, the finest I have yet seen We are just on the equator and it : quite warm. The finest botanical garde the Rajah of Jahore (Ebrehelm) and h harem. He is only 25 years old and he make you think of the Arabian Nights We expect to be in Munits in four day from now. Slik is almost as cheap her as called. Their dollar is larger than our and only worth fifty cents in our money There are 8,000 Blok-Shuy men here. This tsiand is under control of the English and is a great scaport city. Three-fourths of all the un in the world is shipped from here. The bland is fourteen by ninsteen miles and very rich. It is the the extreme southern part of the Malay peninsula, just south of Jahore. Mantia Harbor, April 12th, 9 p. m. Here we are at last all safe and sound hank Ged and the captain of this ship We landed here this a m. at nine an are anchore out in this beautiful bay not three miles from the city. The run this morning was fine as we cam brough the narrows into the big buy and then up through it, following the yers course that Dewey's fleet took the night before the great battle, and we are in ed company, too, for just in front of us is the famous Oregon (the finest all around ship in the worlds, and to our flag ship Olympia, that led the memor-able fight, and just to our left is the "Powerful," the largest English crulser in the world, while just behind us lays a very large and fine battleship that belongs to Japon. There are plenty of others in the bay farther away, but as the shes I mention are so famous I could not help speaking of them. So you see we feel quite safe. I went over to Manila at 2 and stayed until 6 p. m., and took a Book at the great old city. It has 300,000 people, mostly Chinese and Fillpines, with etill quite a number of paroled Spanish solliers here and they seem quite well behaved as they pass about. The Pas's River runs right through the city and di vides it into the old and new Mantia stone wall around it and is well fortified, or was 100 years ago. It has many two or three hundred years old. It show ist what too much religion and tyrann a grand place 100 years ago, but it looks old and neglected new. The city is under martial law now and putrolled by Yan kee solders. No one is allowed out after 7 o'clock p. m. Well, we had a grand trip and made it in forty days from New Cork: The weather was greatly in This is a seaport city and the harher is full of trading vessels from all over the world. The custom house recelpts are $25,000 per days. The little town of Cavite is about two miles below us and here is where Dewey did the Spanshifteet of thirteen vessels and sent them all to join McEnty. The Flighton have been driven back about twenty miles from the city, but they are still fighting ever every Inch of ground. This seems like a the country, very rich in soil with an n or silk shirts outside of their trouser about buil of the people go barefoot and Part Said and Singapore in sprefeeted. I saw about 1 no Filiping closure under goard. Many of them were quite young, only boys from it up. profity, but must of them are homely, I our saidlers in the hospital and many of
